*Perhaps you sent a loving card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray; if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.*

*Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much, whatever the part.*

Obituary

Lucy Blakemore was born April 20, 1899 to the parents of Will and Nancey Blakemore in Whiteville, Tennessee.

She confessed a hope in Christ at an early age under the leadership of Dr. W. Herbert Brewster, Sr. and later moved to Memphis, Tennessee and joined St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church, pastored by Reverend A. R. Williams. She joined Fellowship United Baptist Church, under the leadership of Reverend Lawrence Barksdale, Sr., here she served faithful until her death.

She leaves two daughters, Miss Idella Blakemore and Mrs. Lucy Washington; and a host of nephews, nieces, friends, and other relatives.

If Death should beckon me with outstretched hand
And whisper softly of "An Unknown Land",
I shall not be afraid to go,
For though the path I do not know,
I take Death's hand without a fear,
For He who safely brought me here
Will also take me safely back,
And though in many things I lack,
He will not let me go alone.
Into the "Valley That's Unknown...",
So I reach out and take Death's hand
And journey into the "Promised Land."
