Portrait Of Memory

WHAT can we say to someone who has always been one of the most essential parts of our world; someone who took us by the hand when we were little and help to show the way . . .

WHAT do we say to someone who stood by to help us grow, providing love, strength and support so that we could become who we are today?

WHAT can we say to let her know that she's the best there is, and that we hope we have inherited some of her wisdom and her strength?

WHAT words would we say if we ever get the chance?

Maybe we will just say "We Love you Me-Maw" but God loves you best, and hope she understands.

We love you forever Me-Ma,
Your Daughter & Grandchildren

Mourn Not For Me

*Mourn not for me who has left you
Think not of my loss but of my gain
For I am happy where I am
In God's Heavenly Domain.*

*Mourn not for me for I have not left you
And can easily be found if you try
Just reach deep within your heart
For those memories never die.*

I Love You All

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." II Timothy 4:6-8
