Scripture:

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Should You Go First

*Should you go first, and I remain
To walk the road alone,
I'll live in memory's garden, dear,
With happy days we've known.*

*In Spring, I'll wait for roses red,
When fades the lilac blue;
In early fall, when brown leaves call,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.*

*Should you go first, and I remain
For battles to be fought,
Each thing you've touched along the way
Will be a hallowed spot.*

*I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile,
Though blindly I may grope;
The memory of your helping hand
Will buoy me on with hope.*

*Should you go first, and I remain
To finish with the scroll,
No length'ning shadows shall creep in
To make this life seem drear.*

*We've known so much of happiness,
We've had our cup of joy;
And memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy.*

*Should you go first, and I remain,
One thing I'd have you do:
Walk slowly down that long, long path,
For soon I'll follow you.*

*I'll want to know each step you take,
That I may walk the same,
For someday, down that long, long road,
You'll hear me call your name.*
