OBITUARY

Memories are treasures none can steal,
 - Death is a heartache none can heal.
 Some may forget now that you are gone,
 But we will remember, no matter how long.
 We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
 As time goes by we'll miss you more.
 Your loving smile, your gentle face,
 No one can ever take your place.

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. God knows best. We cannot always understand why things happen as they do, but it is comforting to know that God will always take care of you.

On August 8, 1989 at 10:30 A. M., Bro. Walter Chapman was called to rest at his home in Brownsville, Tennessee. He was born on March 22, 1914 to the late Ms. Mandy Douglass in Haywood County, Tennessee.

He accepted Christ at an early age and joined Dancyville C. M. E. Church and remained a member until death.

On March 27, 1940, he was united in Holy Matrimony to Beatrice Shaw. To this union nine children were born, one preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memories a loving wife, Mrs. Beatrice Chapman of Stanton, Tennessee; three loving and devoted daughters, Ms. Betty Harris of Brownsville, Tennessee, with whom he resided, and Mrs. Clementine Sweet and Bessie Chapman, both of Stanton, Tennessee; five sons, David, Harvey and Leslie Chapman, all of Stanton, Tennessee and Dennis and James Chapman of Brownsville, Tennessee; one sister, Mrs. Mollie M. Williams of Somerville, Tennessee; one brother, Mr. Jim S. Dickerson of McKenzie, Tennessee (one brother, Mr. Thomas Ragland, preceded him in death); sixteen grandchildren; one great grandchild; one daughter-in-law, Ruby Chapman of Brownsville, Tennessee; two sons-in-law, Robert Harris of Somerville, Tennessee and Howard Sweet of Stanton, Tennessee; ten sisters-in-law; four brothers-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Recessional

We may not always tell you exactly how we feel,
 But the love we have for you will always and forever be real.

You mean so much to us, more than you will ever know,
 And we will always love you, no matter where you go.
 So when our time has come, we will walk through heaven's gates with pride,
 Knowing that our dear father will be waiting for us inside.
