

Sweet Home

*I got a beautiful home, sweet home I Know.
 Lord, I wonder will I ever get home.
 Father, you know I stretch my hands to Thee.
 No other help I know.
 Sweet home, I got a beautiful home,
 It's a beautiful home.
 Sweet home, Lord I know,
 Lord, I wonder will I ever get home.
 Before this time another year,
 I may be dead and gone.
 I'll let you know before I go.
 Sweet home, I got a beautiful home, sweet home,
 Lord I know.
 Lord I wonder will I ever get home.*

Obituary

Maudie L. Carney was born on February 11, 1923 in Stanton, Tennessee, the second daughter of eleven children born to Sallie and Willie Caldwell. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and was a faithful member of Douglas Chapel C.M.E. Church until moving to Chicago in 1962.

She was married to Omar Carney as a teenager and they remained happily married until death. She was a Christian mother, having cast her lot with Grant Memorial A.M.E. Church, 4017 Drexel Blvd., after moving to Chicago. She raised her children to love God and respect others, reflecting her own sweet personality.

She is survived by her husband, Omar; three children, daughter, Oma Lue; Sons, Willie and Robert; one grandson, Derrick; six sisters and four brothers and a host of other relatives and many, many friends.

She departed this life on March 17, 1976 in the company of those who loved her. Her spirit remains and memories of many happy and fruitful days sustain them in their loss.
