—OBITUARY—

There is a reaper whose name is death;
And with his sickle keen
He reaps whom he will at breath,
He comes but cannot be seen.

Christianity does not exempt one from death; it only insures triumph over death. There is no other way of entrance into our heavenly Father's house. Life came to a close on Monday morning August 21, 1978 at 11:00 a.m. at the Haywood Park Hospital, Brownsville, Tennessee. She was born July 8, 1914 to the late Mr. and Mrs. Willie E. Hunter. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age at the Russel Grove M. B. Church. Later in life she met and married Leon Archibald and joined Dancyville CME Church where she remained a faithful member until her death.

To this union 2 children were reared, Ernestine and Lee Archibald, one preceeded her in death.

She is survived by a devoted husband, Leon Archibald, 1 daughter, Ernestine Goodloe of Nashville, Tennessee, 15 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren, 1 son-in-law, Lemmie Goodloe of Nashville, Tennessee, 3 sisters, Virginia Hobson of Stanton, Emma Grace Champion, Somerville, Tennessee and Estella Williams of Louisville, Ky., 6 brothers, Onie Hunter of Somerville, Martin Hunter of St. Louis, Mo., George and Herman Hunter of Ky., W. B. Hunter of Cincinnati Ohio, Willie E. Hunter, Jr. of Jackson, Tennessee, 5 aunts, 1 uncle, 10 sisters-in-law, 8 brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Thus star by star declines
Till all are passed away;
As morning high and higher shines
To purer and perfect day.
