MY LAST REQUEST

*Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.
Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.
Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what's right,
to give the most I could, not do less.
Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.
Please don't give flowers, or talk in harsh tones.
Don't be concerned about me now,
I'm well with God, I've made it home.
Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done
Just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won.
When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint,
I've done some good, I've done some wrong, so use all your paint,
Not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark
In fact, don't put me down on canvas paint me in your heart.
Don't just remember all the good times, but remember all the bad,
For life is full of many things some happy and some sad.
But if you must do something, then I have one last request
Forgive me for the wrongs I've done and with the love that's left
Thank God for my soul's resting, thank God for all who loved me.*

Obituary

Mr. Omar (Red Boy) Carney was born to Irene and Sullivan Carney on November 30, 1922 in Stanton, Tennessee. He professed a belief in Christ at a very early age and was a faithful member of Douglas Chapel C.M.E. Church in Stanton, Tennessee. He served on the trustee board and as treasurer.

Omar was joined in holy matrimony to Maudie Lue Douglas on December 25, 1940 in Tennessee. To this union, three children were born: Oma, Willie and Robert (Freddie). Maudie preceded him in death.

Omar was active in the civil rights movement in Haywood County, Tennessee during the 1950's and was the only person to shed blood in his community for the right to vote.

Omar moved to Chicago in 1959. He was employed by Schultz and Burch Biscuit Company for 25 years until retirement in November 1986.

Omar united in holy matrimony to Ms. Willie B. Robinson on September 28, 1977. This union remained until his death on Tuesday, July 30, 1996.

Omar leaves to mourn, Mrs. Willie B. Robinson-Carney, Oma (Horace) Alexander, Willie Lee (Gwendolyn) Carney, Robert (Lillie) Carney; adopted daughter, Bessie Jones of Louisville, KY; grandchildren: Derrick, Daryl, Darrin, Robert, DeMetria and Brenyatta; sister: Annie (Lemon) Young of Philadelphia, PA; two uncles; an aunt of Buffalo, NY; a father-in-law, three stepchildren, eight step-grandchildren; and a host of very close relatives and friends.
