OBITUARY

On Wednesday morning, September 18, 1974 at Baptist Hospital, the sweet spirit of our dear sister, Mrs. Viola Coleman Jackson went to join the Saviour in that home not built with hands, but whose maker and builder is God.

Mrs. Viola Coleman Jackson was the daughter of the late Mr. Green and Mrs. Jenny Coleman. She was born May 17, 1893 in Shelby County.

She was converted at an early age and joined the Bethlehem Baptist Church in Arlington, Tennessee. Later moving her membership to the Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Collierville Tennessee. Upon moving to Memphis, she joined the Pleasant Hill Bapt. Church under the leadership of Rev. J. M. Wade, where she was a loving and model member. Until health began to fail, she was a loyal and faithful member of the Senior Usher Board.

She was united in marriage to the late Mr. Ben Jackson in the year of our Lord 1936. She leaves to mourn her passing two sons, Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Nathaniel Walker; one sister-in-law; one brother-in-law; 12 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; 2 great, great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

POEM

The clock of life is wound but one no man or woman has the power to tell just when the clock
 will stop, at an early or late hour.

Now is the only time we own,
 Work, love and with a will,
 For the clock that is moving today
 Tomorrow may be still.
