

A precious one from us is gone, a voice we love is still;
A place is vacant in our home, which never can be filled.
He will never be forgotten, though on earth he is no more;
But in memory he is with us, as he always was before.

We Love You

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul, He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou aniontest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Tribute

Father, Daddy, Granddaddy, Grandfather, Grandpa; all the names we called you so dear; it's hard to believe you're no longer with us here.

We'll miss how you made us laugh until we'd cry, but we all realize we must now say good-bye.

We loved you so much, but God loved you best, it comforts us to know that now you're at rest.

If we trust in Christ Jesus, keep our faith, and continue to pray, we'll join you in heaven someday.

We know that with time, our heartaches will ease, but sleep now dear loved one, for now you're at peace.

With all our love, your children and grandchildren, and great-grandchildren

James H. Shaw

Obituary

James H. Shaw was born in Stanton, Tennessee April 17, 1913 to the late Will and Annie Shaw. He departed this life Thursday, January 16, 1997 at St. Joseph Hospital.

He confessed Christ at an early age in Stanton, Tennessee at Adams Chapel C.M.E. He united in marriage to Fannie L. Watkins; to this union they had four children.

He later moved to Memphis and became a member of Princeton Chapel A.M.E. where he was pastor's aide and trustee until his passing.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife, Fannie L. Shaw; one son, James L. Shaw (Clara); three daughters, Kate Douglas, Betty Williams (Raymond), and Grace Shaw; one sister, Pearl Lewis of Nashville, TN; eighteen grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
