

Dear Sis

We will miss you and never forget you. We will see you again someday.

From You Sister-in-law Ruth

Somewhere Beyond

*Somewhere beyond the rainbow's end,
The skies are bright and fair,
No shadows dim - No darkness falls,
The land is peaceful there,
And somewhere with the power to heal,
To guide and understand;
Is waiting there to calm our fears,
And take us by the hand
So when a dear one heeds His call Our hearts should be at rest,
For there beyond the rainbow's end
A Loving God Knows Best.*

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me. I want no rites in a gloom filled
room; Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little -
but not too long,
and not with your
head bowed low,
remember the
love that we once shared. Miss me - but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all part of the master's plan a step on the road to home.
Miss me - but let me go.*

*You are not forgotten, dear
one, nor will you ever be as long as
life and memory
last we will remember thee.*

Obituary

Juanita Lucille Allen Thompson, was born to Arlington and Mary Allen, on October 14, 1935 in Brownsville, Tennessee. She confessed a hope in Christ at an early age, in Willow Grove Baptist Church in Tennessee, under the pastorage of the late Reverend Cooperwood.

Juanita completed her high school education in Tennessee. She was united in marriage to Mr. Willis Thompson on February 17, 1954. Mr. Thompson preceded her in death on February 4, 1991. To this union no children were born.

Juanita moved to Indianapolis, Indiana in 1955 and united with the Galilee Baptist Church, under the pastorage of the late Reverend D.B. Dudley. She was a member of the Senior Choir and Women's Sunday School Class. She was employed with the Mechanics Laundry from March of 1968, until she retired in April of this year.

Juanita Lucille Allen Thompson departed this life Wednesday, August 2, 2000 at the age of sixty-four years, nine months and nineteen days.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories, brothers, Charles T. , Otis Clay Sr. and James Edward Allen; one stepson, Melvin Thompson; one aunt, Georgiann Mitchell; two grandchildren and a host of first cousins, other relatives, friends and church family.

Psalm Twenty-Three

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul;

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

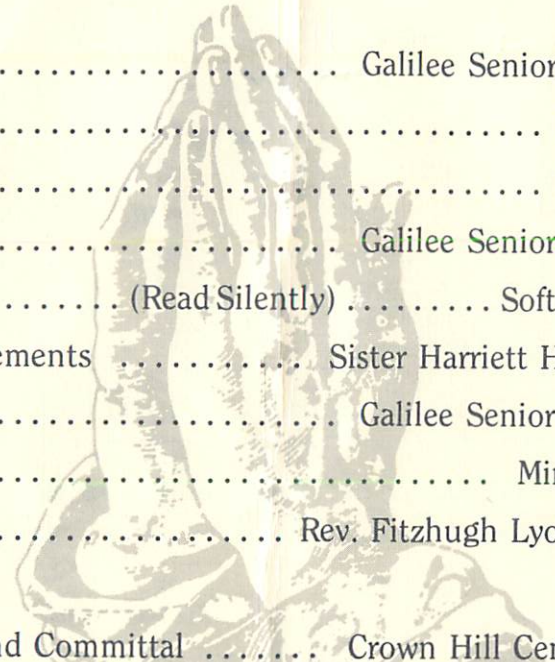

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
