

A Tribute to "Grandma"

Loving you was so easy to do
You taught us faith; your lesson was true
You made us believe, if it's God's will Let it be done; Peace Be Still
Although our lives will now be bare
We're at ease, knowing you're in God's care
Rest in peace, Grandma; for you were one woman
Who left so many fond memories
That could never compare to no other
LOVINGLY SUBMITTED,
Your Grand Kids

Obituary

Zelma Louis Archibald was born on August 13, 1911, to the late Sam Hunt and Eliza Taylor Hunt in Fayette County, Tennessee. She was one of nine children born to this union. She accepted Christ as her personal Saviour at an early age. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Levoy Archibald in June 1930. Five children were born to this union; one son preceded her in death.

She moved to Cleveland, Ohio in 1951. In 1952 she joined St. Paul A.M.E. Zion Church under the pastorate of the late Dr. Albert L. Fuller. She was a member of Class #41, also a member of the Sisterhood Club. She loved and supported her church. Zelma attended and was very active at Murtis H. Taylor Multi Service Center, where she enjoyed traveling and various crafts. She especially enjoyed quilting and canning.

She departed this life on Wednesday, January 12, 2000 at Harborside Health Care Center. She leaves to cherish her memories: two daughters, Hazel Ingram and Olivia Givhan (Charles) of Cleveland, Ohio; two sons, Clarence (Barbara) of Cleveland, Ohio and Charlie (Alberta) of Gary, Indiana; one sister, Oretha Prewitt of Williston, Tennessee; one brother, Sam Hunt (Anna Mae) of Stanton, Tennessee; one sister-in-law, Sallie Archibald of Brownsville, Tennessee; thirteen grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
