

In Loving Memory

Mother-Dear, you might be gone from our sight,
But never from our hearts.
We'll miss you greatly
And what a joy it was to have you
As our Mother-Dear.

Obituary

We are gathered today in loving memory of our dear loved one. "I shall raise my eyes to the hills from where will my help come? My help is from God, the maker of heaven and earth."

The life of Freddie Mae Haley came to a close on Tuesday, December 24, 1991 at 8:05 a.m. at Barnes Hospital in Saint Louis, Missouri. She was gently called to Heaven.

She was born to the late Dave and Orelia Cooper Archibald on December 11, 1914. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined Dancyville C.M.E. Church.

She met and married Thomas H. Haley in 1936. To that union four children were born. One son, Thomas Haley, preceded her in death.

After moving to Saint Louis, Missouri she joined Northern Missionary Baptist Church and was a faithful member for many years, until her health began to fail.

She is survived by; her husband, Thomas H. Haley; three daughters, Una Sanders, Velma Banks and Sallie Hutch, all of Saint Louis, Missouri and a step-daughter, Marie Haley of Chicago, Illinois; one son-in-law, James Hutch of Saint Louis, Missouri; ten grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; one brother, Eugene Archibald of Gary, Indiana; one sister, Sallie Archibald of Brownsville, Tennessee; five sisters-in-law; five brothers-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
