Obituary

A busy life came to a close on Thursday, May 26, 1983, at 8 A.M., when Sis. Lena Turner was called to her heavenly home.

She was born and reared in Hardeman County, Tennessee, and came to Haywood County, Tennessee in 1918. She married the late Wash Turner and to that union 15 children were born, one preceded her in death.

Sis. Turner was converted at an early age and joined the Good Hope Baptist Church where she served faithfully as Sunday School Teacher, Presidents of the Usher Board and Missionary Society, and many other capacities. She also served as a Missionary in the Hickory Grove District Association, and as guest speakers throughout West Tennessee on various occasions.

She never refused to help any worthy cause and would never forget her church. She would say, "I am willing to divide, but I must put my church first." It seemed that her church and its welfare was always on her mind, and like David she was always glad when they said, "Let us go into the house of the Lord."

She was highly respected by the people who knew her. She was a good neighbor, a law abiding citizen, and a woman who will be greatly missed in the Good Hope Community.

She was an all round Christian lady and was a dutiful member of Good Hope Baptist Church as long as she was able.

She and her loving husband saw to it that their children attended Sunday School and public school, thereby shaping their lives in the right direction, and those who are left, have made honorable men and women.

Let us pray that God will bring us all to that perfect light, to that city of the living, to the vision of God and to the welcoming face of Christ.

She leaves to cherish her memories 10 sons: Messrs. J.C., Richard and Norvell Turner of Stanton, TN., Rev. Murphy and Samuel Turner of St. Louis, MO., Nolan, Haymon, Bonell, and Isaac Turner of Memphis, TN., Collier Turner of Jackson, TN.; 4 daughters, Mesdames Ada Lee and Odessa Allen of Memphis, TN.; Elizabeth Vaulx of Stanton, TN., and Imornia Ingram of Jackson, TN., 5 aunts; 2 brothers-in-law; 2 sisters-in-law; 4 sons-in-law; 7 daughters-in-law; 65 grandchildren; 62 great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Her favorite Bible verse was "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." St. John 3:16.
