She leaves to cherish her memories: One son, Mr. Charles Kent: One daughter, Mrs. Charles Kent: Thirteen grandchildren: Seven great grandchildren: Four brothers: Two sisters: One aunt: And a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

GOODBYE, PROUD WORLD

Goodbye proud world, I'm going home;
 Thou'rt not my friend and I'm not thine;
 Long I've been tossed like salt sea foam.
 All day mid weary clouds I roam,
 And, oh my Home, Oj Holy Home;
 Goodbye to flattery's fawning face;
 For grandeur with his wise grimace,
 To upstart wealth's averted eye
 To supple office, low and high
 To frozen hearts and hastening feet,
 To those who go and those who come
 Goodbye, proud world; I'm going home.
