

1 Thessalonians 4: 13-18

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow now, even as others which have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one another with theses words.

~ Obituary ~

Annie Mae Hobson-McClary was born February 17, 1931 to Israel and Maggie Harvey in Haywood County, Tennessee. She went home to be with the Lord, Thursday, September 23, 2004. Her husband, James McClary and her two brothers, Charlie Perry and McKinley Harvey preceded her in death.

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior at Russell Grove Baptist Church in Fayette County, Tennessee. After moving to Memphis in 1957, she joined Mt. Gilliam Baptist Church where she served on the Mother Board, Missionary Society and the Kitchen Committee. In 1994, she helped to organize Cornerstone Temple of Deliverance where she also served on the Mother Board.

She was a faithful employee of Galloway United Methodist Church for more than 35 years

Psalms 27: 1-5

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, that; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock,
