

T H A N K S !

When words seem to fail us,
As we're bent beneath our grief,
It's such a comfort knowing that you're there;
And all the things you've done or said,
However small or brief
Has truly shown us just how much you care!

O B I T U A R Y

There is a reaper whose name is death
And with his cycle keen
He reaps our loved ones from our breast.

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father to take from us our dear loved one, Mr. A. D. Holloway, who expired on Sunday, January 1, 1984, at 9:45 a.m. He was born August 27, 1903, to Jim and Cally Holloway in Stanton, Tennessee. He accepted Christ at an early age, and united with the Prospect C.M.E. Church in Stanton.

A. D. Holloway was united in holy matrimony to Isenath; and to this union, John and Jimmie Lou were born. After the death of Isenath, A. D. later married Willie Mae Vaultx, who also preceded him in death.

Upon moving to Louisville, KY, A. D. united with the Hill Street Baptist Church, and was baptized by the late Dr. H. C. Mitchell. A. D. was a faithful member until ill health rendered him completely unable to attend services.

He lived with his son and daughter-in-law, John and Lela; and they, along with his daughter, Jimmie Lou, who lived across the street, obeyed the commandment to "Honor thy father", as they loved and cared for "Dad".

"Dad" was at ease in his affliction because he had given much love and care to others; and, he was loved greatly by his family and friends. He always had a smile; and as he lived in life, he passed calmly to the great beyond.

He leaves to mourn his passing: his son, John Holloway, and daughter, Jimmie Lou Mann, who both reside in Louisville, KY; two step-sons, William Vaultx, and Arvie Vaultx, both of Gary, Ind.; a brother, Ashley Holloway, and a sister, Cally S. Greer, both of Sacramento, Cal.; nine grandchildren; fourteen great-grandchildren; thirteen great-great-grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends.
