

ACTIVE PALLBEARERS

Mr. Earl Rice

Mr. Leonard Boyd

Mr. Mitchell Dye

Mr. Theodore Giles

Mr. Walter Hill

Mr. Albert Taylor

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

Senior Citizens' Goodwill Club Inc.
Golden Age Club
Senior Citizens' Home Making Club

APPRECIATION

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much whatever the part.

Sincerely yours,

The Family

Interment: Greater Freedonia Cemetery
Rawls Funeral Home Morticians in Charge

OBSEQUIES

FOR

Mrs. Fannie Mae Hays Maclin

THE GREATER FREEDONIA BAPTIST CHURCH
Stanton, Tennessee

Sunday: December 14, 1975
Time: 2:00 P. M.

Rev. Jerry Jones, Pastor

OBITUARY

The unwelcomed visitor, Death, still continues to wield his sword on everything that has life and the human family is never overlooked despite the fact that we are dearly loved by other members, relatives and friends. Efficiency, dependability, good character and beauty of spirit are all over-looked by him, yet these qualities so beautifully describe our own Dear Fannie Mae, so he claimed her as his victim from the Covington, Tennessee Memorial Hospital on December 9, 1975 at 2:00 P. M.

Her primary and secondary education was obtained in her home-town, Hopkinsville, Kentucky. Her college training was done at Lane College at Jackson, Tennessee where she earned her B. A. Degree.

Prior to her marriage to Mr. James Maclin she gave many years of service to the Fayette County School System and was well liked in the community where she was employed. Many adults of Fayette County now refer to her as their most efficient and choice teacher, no less can be said of so many persons whose lives she has touched. Upon marrying Mr. James Maclin she moved to Haywood County, Tennessee and was immediately employed by the Haywood County Board of Education as principal of Freedonia Elementary School. There she gave many, many years of service as a teacher, community worker and a tangible citizen. Her ability to motivate students for purposeful living was unlimited and her effort to work for what she thought was of value to her students and fellow teachers could be excelled by no one. She gave her whole self for any endeavor to help her fellow man. Her last years of classroom instructions were given in the Douglas Elementary School of Stanton, Tennessee.

With a firm determination to remain after retirement, her community activities linked her to the Golden Age Club of Haywood County, Ten Senior Citizens Goodwill Club Incorporated, and the Better Home Makers Club of Stanton, Tenn. She was most actively engaged to all organizations despite her slight incapacitation. She made the statement, "I'll never give up until I have to." And this she meant and did not do. Her church activities relate to the Freedonia Baptist Church where she served as Sunday School Teacher, Missionary President, Choir Member, and President of the Annual Woman's Day Program. In each of these capacities she served for several years with pleasure. Later in life she and her husband were the leaders in erecting and establishing of this structure known as the Greater Freedonia Baptist Church. Here she gave unlimited service in many capacities: Church Clerk, Choir Member, Sunday School Superintendent, President of the Missionary Society, and in any capacity she saw or felt she was needed. She was truly a servant.

Her survivors are: A husband, Mr. James Maclin Sr.: One son, Mr. James Maclin Jr. of Detroit, Michigan: Two daughters, Mrs. Emma Lee Cade and Ms. Carmille Maclin of Mason, Tennessee: Three grandchildren: Three sisters, Mrs. Ruth Hartsfield of Milan, Tenn., Mmes. Frauline Johnson and June Williams of Chicago, Ill.: Several nieces and nephews: And a countless numbers of other relatives and friends.

*To think of Thy eternity of sleep, to know thine eyes are tearless,
Though mine weep, and when this cup's last bitterness I drain,
One thought shall still it primal sweetness keep,
Thou hast the Peace and I the undying pain.*

—SELECTED—

ORDER OF SERVICE

- Processional..... Soft Music
- Song ..... Near The Cross
- Scripture
- Prayer
- Song..... Pass Me Not
- Acknowledgements ..... Mrs. Kathleen Dye
- Solo ..... Mrs. Shirley Williams
- Resolutions .....Freedonia Baptist Church ..... Mr. Fred Whitmore
Senior Citizens Better Home Club..... Mrs. Mary Willis
- Solo..... Sweet Home..... Mrs. Lucille Pruiett
- Tribute.....Senior Citizens' Goodwill Club ..... Mrs. Fannie Bond
- Solo ..... Mrs. Ruthie Jackson
- Obituary ..... Mrs. Roy Bond
- Eulogy ..... Rev. Jerry Jones
- Viewing of Remains ..... Soft Music..... Morticians in Charge
- Recessional ..... Soft Music ..... Morticians in Charge