You are not forgotten Dad, nor will you ever be. As long as life and memory last, we will remember thee. We miss you now, our hearts are sore, as time goes by, we will miss you more. Your loving smile, your gentle face, no one can fill your vacant place.

Humbly submitted, Sons

We know not why our brother was called to God, but in his passing he leaves a void in all our hearts. We must believe that his pain and suffering are over, and that he is in a perpetual state of happiness. We do not cry for the departed, the tears are for us who must go on without him. He shall always be loved and remembered. Sleep on dear brother.

Humbly submitted, Brothers and Sisters

Acknowledgement

Our hearts are bowed in sorrow over the passing of our loved one, yet during these times, you have lifted many of our burdens for which we are eternally grateful. Your many kind expressions of sympathy and all other acts of kindness shown during our many hours of bereavement shall never be forgotten. From the depths of hearts all of us say, "Thanks" to each of you.

Obituary

SULLIVAN CARNEY was born August 4, 1924, in Stanton, Tennessee to the union of the late Otto Sr., and Esther Pruitt Carney.

On December 12, 1950, Sullivan was united in holy matrimony to Estella Boyd. To this union two sons were born. He was a devoted husband, adored his sons and was most concerned about their well being.

Sullivan was a devoted employee of Schulze and Burch Biscuit Company for over 37 years before retiring in March 1987.

Sullivan lived a long and useful life for sixty six years, until the angels sealed his eyes on March 30, 1991.

He leaves to cherish his memory, a dedicated wife, Mrs. Estella Carney; sons, Sullivan Carney, Jr., and Billy Carney, both of Chicago, Illinois, and Lewis Mayes of Brownville, Tennessee; grandchildren, Aisha Dianelle Carney, Teshonda Mayes, Curthia Mayes, and Michael Mayes; daughter-in-law, Alice Carney; sisters, Renner Sweet, Mattie L. Cannon, and Mildred Sweet, all of Chicago, Illinois, Celestine Caldwell, and Rachel Miller, Gary, Indiana, and Cozetta Miller, Decatur, Michigan; brothers, Lee Carney, Ozzie Carney, and Otto Carney, all of Chicago, Illinois; a number of sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

God saw the road was getting rough the hills were hard to climb. He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, Peace be thine. The weary hours the days of pain the sleepless nights are past, the ever patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.
